ITINERARY

Arrive in Delhi

Begin your journey by embarking on your international flight to Delhi. Upon arrival at Indira Gandhi International Airport, you will be met by your customer service executive and welcomed with a "Mauli ritual". Mauli is a symbolic cotton thread tied on the wrist and is our traditional way to start the journey at an auspicious note. Afterwards, you will be transferred to your hotel.

Delhi

Explore Delhi, India's capital city that boasts a rich history spanning over 2,000 years. Arrive in old Delhi and ride in a cycle rickshaw (pedi-cabs) to the once waterfilled square of Chandni Chowk. Discover the Jama Masjid, Delhi's oldest mosque, before learning about the history of the Sikh religion at the Sheeshganj Gurudwara.

Continue to Raj Ghat, the memorial to Gandhi, built at the site of his cremation on the banks of the Yamuna River. In the afternoon, drive past India Gate and the Government Secretariat buildings on the way to the Qutab Minar - the five-storied victory tower to signify the beginning of the Muslim rule in India by the first Muslim ruler, Qutab-ud-din Aibak.

MEALS: Breakfast

Dehli - Agra

Travel by private vehicle to Agra-the city of Taj Mahal. Arrive in Agra and check in for your stay. Agra-Once a small village on the banks of the Yamuna river, it was transformed by two great Mughal monarchs, Akbar and his grandson Shah Jahan into the second capital of the Mughal Empire-Dar-ul- Khilafat, or "seat of the Emperor" in the 16th & 17th century. A world of contrasting edifices of red sandstone and white marble, narrow galleys, bustling streets and small buggies, Agra retains the irresistible charm that made this the favorite city of the Mughals. Rest of the day is at your leisure for independent explorations.

Today's optional tours:

Once in Agra, you have two options of visiting the Agra fort and North India's oldest Christian cemetery or experience a live cultural show that depicts the saga of love and a memorable journey into history

MEALS: Breakfast

Agra - Jaipur

Rise early for a dawn visit to the Taj Mahal. Today you will see this extraordinary monument by the first light of day as its exemplary beauty is awe-inspiring and will create an unforgettable memory. Mughal emperor, Shahjahan built this architectural wonder to enshrine the mortal remains of his beloved Queen

Mumtaz Mahal. (Note: Timing subject to change based on the local sunrise timing)

Return to the hotel for breakfast and drive for Jaipur – the 18th century capital of Rajasthan. Stop enroute at Abhaneri Village, a popular stop along the Agra-Jaipur road for the impressive Chand Baori stepwell and the Harshat Mata Temple. The Chand Baori is perhaps the region's most visited stepwell and is one of the largest and deepest in all of India. Continue to Jaipur, reaching in the evening. On arrival, check in for your stay.

Jaipur – also known as the “Pink City”, for the abundance of pink plastered stone used to build its massive forts, magnificent palaces and exquisite temples. The city built in 1727 A.D by Maharaja Sawai Jai Singh II followed a grid system, which made it the only planned city of its time. A young Bengali architect Vidhyadhar Bhattacharya designed this city in accordance with Shilp Shastra – an ancient Hindu treatise on architecture. There is far more to the city than just its famous monuments and to get a complete experience of Jaipur, uncover the mysteries of the bazaars and visit silversmiths, turban sellers and traditional markets.

Today's optional tours:

After a long day of exploration, head to the optional tour Raj Mandir Cinema to experience the glamour of a Bollywood film.

MEALS: Breakfast

Jaipur

Morning visit the imposing Amber Fort. Set on a hilltop overlooking Maota Lake, the fort is an authentic example of Rajput architecture and the Sheesh Mahal (Hall of Mirrors) is one of its more spectacular building. Next brief photo stop at the Hawa Mahal (Palace of Winds). Its beehive-like structure is an interplay of red and pink sand stone, painstakingly outlined with white borders and motifs. Behind this elaborate latticed facade, the cloistered ladies of the court could watch the daily goings-on in the street below. Afternoon is at leisure for independent exploration. Evening, enjoy a traditional meal with folk dance at a local restaurant in the town.

Today's optional tours:

Half-day Jaipur City Tour – We suggest visiting Jaipur's Royal City Palace and exploring its extravagant rooms and apartments. Later, discover one of the five astronomical observatories built by Maharaja Jai Singh, the founder of Jaipur.

Prayer Ceremony – You may visit a local temple in the evening to watch the prayer ceremony.

MEALS: Breakfast and Dinner

Jaipur - Delhi

After breakfast at hotel, you will be transferred to Delhi. In the afternoon, you are free to explore Delhi at your own pace.

MEALS: Breakfast and Dinner

Departure from Delhi back to Australia

After breakfast, spend the morning in Delhi at leisure. Later you will then be transferred to the International Airport for your flight home. We hope you enjoyed your journey to India with us!

MEALS: Breakfast.
